LPG gas agencies and petrol pumps to Kargil war widows

*311. SHRI K. M. KHAN:
SHRI B. J. PANDA:

Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any proposal under consideration of the Government for allotment of LPG gas agencies and petrol pump outlets to the Kargil war widows of all the States;

(b) if so, what criteria have been adopted for distribution of the LPG gas agencies and petrol pump outlets to these war widows;

(c) whether Government have already received applications from the war widows for the allotment of such agencies; and

(d) if so, the number of applications received and the agencies and outlets allotted, so far, alongwith the places where these dealerships were allotted?

THE MINISTER OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI RAM NAIK): (a) The Government have formulated a Special Schemes for allotment of LPG distributorships/retail outlet dealerships to widows/next of kin of Defence Personnel killed in action in "Operation Vijay" in Kargil.

(b) To be eligible under the Special Scheme, the applicant should be the widow of the deceased soldier (if married) and next of kin if the deceased soldier was unmarried. The applicant should be 18-60 years in age and should not be already in possession of a Letter of Intent of any Oil Company as an individual or a partner. The applicant should be willing to work as a full time dealer/distributor.

(c) and (d) The Directorate General Resettlement (DGR), Ministry of Defence has reported that a total number of 435 applications were received under the Special Scheme of which 431 beneficiaries have been recommended to the Ministry of Petroleum and Natural Gas by the DGR for allotment of dealerships/ distributorships. The cases of 281 beneficiaries out of those recommended by the DGR have been approved by the Government for allotment of dealerships/distributorships. In regard to the remaining 150 beneficiaries, economic feasibility surveys of the locations are being conducted.
